THE MISSION

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Justice Academy provides a wide range of courses to meet the needs of law enforcement agencies and a variety of delivery options including courses on the Salemburg and Edneyville campuses and through courses at community colleges. The Academy also provides course offerings via web based learning.

The budget picture continues to be problematic. The Academy has responded to legislative requests to trim costs by moving staff to receipt supported positions and cutting expenditures. Additionally, the Academy has continued to look for other ways to provide additional training through federal grants and partnerships with local law enforcement agencies. The Academy continues to expand distance learning through Blackboard and other web based learning portals. Many local agencies are also experiencing budget cutbacks and have tightened their budgets for training and travel. Therefore, the number of students trained has declined. In the future, the Academy anticipates continued budgetary challenges. However, the Academy has overcome past challenges and looks forward to offering high-quality services with the limited resources that are provided.

The Academy completed the indoor firing range at the West Campus. A Law Enforcement Day was held in August 2011 at the West Campus in Edneyville to highlight the opening of new facility. Local law enforcement agencies and community members were impressed with this new indoor firing range, which boasts 12 lanes for pistol, shotgun and rifle fire. It also simulates night and restricted view for more realistic training in real life circumstances. Since the indoor firing range opening, additional upgrades in sound protection and lead removal system have been put into operation. The renovations to the Administration Annex Building on the East Campus in Salemburg were completed and staff moved into the building in October of 2011.

The Academy is pleased to provide additional information regarding campus courses and information via its new Facebook page. This page is a source for upcoming courses, student activities, law enforcement news, campus happenings and other pertinent information. The Academy's Facebook page continues to increase followers and views each month. The Facebook page also provides photographs of classroom and practical exercises to show the public the services the Academy provides.

Next year will mark the 40th anniversary of the creation of the NC Justice Academy. With this legacy of criminal justice service provided at the Academy, law enforcement officers have received the very best training available. The Academy is excited about continuing its mission to provide quality service to the law enforcement community. Quality instruction is a hallmark of what the Academy continues to provide.

THE TRAINING HIGHLIGHTS

COMMISSION/IN-SERVICE CENTER

Chris Anderson led the Commission/In-service Center for the first half of the year as the training manager before being promoted and relocated to the West Campus. Gary Dudley was promoted to the training manager role in May. Dudley served on the board of the North Carolina Law Enforcement Training Officers Association (NCLETOA) as the Past President.

Bill Dubois joined the staff in January and assumed responsibility for mandated in-service development. He participated in and coordinated activities related to the Juvenile Minority Sensitivity Training (JMST) Committee. Bill also coordinated and delivered the In-service Instructor Updates. In the past year, Jennifer Fisher worked with the North Carolina Coalition Against Human Trafficking to implement a new block of instruction on human trafficking in the Basic Law Enforcement Training (BLET) state curriculum. She rewrote the Individuals with Mental Illness and Mental Retardation block of instruction in the BLET curriculum. Jennifer traveled the state and made several conference presentations during the year to hundreds of law enforcement, telecommunicators, and first responders.

Tim Fuss, responsible for detention officer training, was selected to serve as a Regional Field Coordinator for the Southern Region for the National Institute of Corrections and is able to deliver instruction in courses developed by them. Fuss, a nationally certified Verbal Judo instructor, has created and delivered a Verbal Judo course specific to detention officers.

Susan Gillis coordinated the Sheriffs' Standards Telecommunicator Certification for the Academy and maintains the curriculum for the state, as well as overseeing the development of in-service training for telecommunicators for the state of North Carolina. In April 2012, Gillis coordinated the North Carolina Justice Academy's Telecommunicators Conference and hosted the conference at our Salemburg campus. She coordinated and taught additional training for telecommunicators including Overcoming Negativity in the Communications Center, Handling Suicidal Callers and Telecommunicator Supervisor Training.

Students participate in role plays and practical exercises during classes.

Kristi Jernigan continued developing courses for the Academy's Online Learn Center including Elder Abuse Awareness and the Telecommunicator, along with Career Survival for Law Enforcement, Detention Officers, and Telecommunicators. Jernigan coordinated the Criminal Justice Standards Certification Workshop. Jernigan assisted Tami Warren with the planning and preparation of the Peace Officers Memorial Day ceremony. Jernigan co-authored Coping with Vicarious Trauma for the telecommunicators' in-service training program. After the promotion of Chris Anderson to Deputy Director of our West Campus in December, Jernigan was the Acting Manager of the Commission/In-Service Center until Gary Dudley was announced as the new manager of the center at the end of May.

Leila Humphries handles the responsibility of the General Instructor Training courses. In February 2012, Humphries attended the Training Expo Conference in Atlanta, Georgia, themed Unleashing Human Potential Through Learning. The goals were to showcase ideas and methodologies that would emphasize recognizing purpose, realizing possibility and maximizing potential. With the upcoming revision of General Instructor Training, this was a tremendous opportunity for Humphries to be able to experience the latest in technology and ideas for training adults to be able to enhance the learning experience of our General Instructor students.

INVESTIGATIONS CENTER

As training manager for the Investigations Center, Tanya Chapman has been instrumental in working with grants for her area. The Investigations Training Center was fortunate to be the recipient of a Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) grant administered through the North Carolina Governor's Crime Commission. This grant has allowed the delivery at various locations throughout the state of tuition-free courses including Investigative Interviewing for Sexual Assault, Criminal Sexuality, Criminal Sexual Paraphilias, Stalking and Stalking Behaviors, Domestic Violence: From Obsessive Love to Murder, Special Topics in Sexual Assault, Thinking Errors in Sexual Offenders, Inside the Mind of the Violent Offender and Finding Forensic Evidence with an Alternate Light Source.

During the past year, Michael Glenn managed to design and develop two new programs: Finding Forensic Evidence with an Alternate Light Source and CSI: Myth Versus Method. The former was a part of the Violence Against Women Act grant Chapman secured for the Academy, which placed emphasis on delivering training to the state's law enforcement officers in interviewing and investigating acts of violence on the female sex. The latter was designed as a presentation format, for the NC Law Enforcement Training Officers Association, and the North Carolina Law Enforcement Accreditation Network.

Michael Glenn prepares students as they begin an exercise in Chemical Processing and Advanced Photography.

Scott Hartley completed nine iterations of his nationally sought Interview and Interrogation Course. During the same time frame, Hartley completed five iterations of his ground breaking new course, Investigating for Probable Cause, the course that promises to change the entire process of how criminal investigations are accomplished.

Catherine Johnson joined the Investigations Center in May of 2012. Johnson's work will be concentrated in the specialty area of sex crimes. Her position is funded by a grant from the Governor's Crime Commission (GCC).

With collaborative efforts, Doug Robinson developed a new course, Recognizing Insurance Fraud, with the NC Insurance Crime Information Exchange. It was initially delivered in Edneyville in April 2012 and received outstanding evaluations. Future classes are scheduled to be delivered in Wake Forest, Pineville and again in Edneyville with Robinson serving as coordinator. In addition to his delivery of multiple anti-terrorism trainings and Financial Crimes classes, Robinson coordinated the delivery of Initial Law Enforcement Response to Suicide Bombing Attacks at multiple locations across the state. This training was delivered by the Energetic Materials Research and Testing Center at New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology. In addition, Robinson was named the coordinator for the Criminal Investigation Certificate Program (CICP).

Ross Robinson, whose position is funded by the Governor's Crime Commission, assisted in the production of the training video entitled Child Maltreatment Cases and the First Responder. The NC Justice Academy in partnership with the Governor's Crime Commission released the video in June of 2012. The video, 10 months in the making, was presented in fall of 2012 to the Juvenile Justice Planning Committee of the Governor's Crime Commission. Director, Mark Strickland, Deputy Director Wayne Ayers and Investigations Center Manager Tanya Chapman were present.

John Wiggins has delivered Fundamentals of the Investigative Process, Death Investigation, Suicide Investigation, Cold Case Homicide Investigation, and Property and Evidence Room Management multiple times during the past year on campus and at various locations around the state. Wiggins continued to coordinate the NC Homicide Investigators Association and the NC Property and Evidence Association conferences which have assisted in significant growth for both of those organizations.

LAW ENFORCEMENT LEADERSHIP CENTER

The Academy's Law Enforcement Leadership Center operates under the leadership of Bob Garbett.

Along with a busy year of coordination and instruction, Donnie Parks served as a mentor and advisor to four of his previous students seeking promotions. Also, in the past year, four graduates of the New Chief Executive Development Course have been promoted to the position of chief of police using knowledge gained from the course during their interview process. Parks coordinated the January 2012 North Carolina Association of Chiefs of Police Conference. Collaborative work with Federal Probation and Parole Officer Jeff Nabers produced new training on Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder for Law Enforcement Officers with an initial delivery scheduled for October 2012.

Michael Kudrick continued working with the First Line Supervision courses. He spent a great deal of time traveling during the last year providing instruction of various blocks of leadership and supervision skills to law enforcement agencies.

Josh Phillips coordinated another 11 month Management Development Program (MDP). Phillips also coordinated several other courses including the New Sergeants Course and the First Line Supervision Course. The Management Development Alumni Conferences held in the fall of 2011 and the spring of 2012 were both coordinated by Phillips.

Josh Phillips and the Management Development Program students meet monthly during the year.

Essential Skills for New Supervisors includes group activities that illustrate the importance of communication along with barriers and obstacles that may exist.

In August 2011, Hank Snyder coordinated the DARE Officers Instructor class. Besides his normal course offerings for School Resource Officers, Snyder coordinated the NC Association of School Resource Officer Conference in July 2011 and the NC Victim Assistance Network Conference in September 2011.

Lorraine Snyder was a guest speaker at several conferences during the past year including the NC Association of School Resource Officers Conference in July 2012 and the annual DARE Conference in January 2012. She provided both with a session on Basic Spanish for Arrest Procedures. Snyder coordinated the Gang Resistance Education and Training (GREAT) during February 2012 at the East Campus in Salemburg. Over the past year, Kevin West was responsible for coordination of the Child Death Investigations classes taught in conjunction with the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner. West provided blocks of instruction with the General Instructor training program and several conferences. West coordinated the NC Criminal Information Exchange Conference (NCCIX) with the SBI and the North Carolina Coalition Against Sexual Assault (NCCASA). West, also, coordinated several offerings of In-service Firearms at the new indoor firing range at the West Campus in Edneyville.

TACTICAL/TRAFFIC CENTER

In addition to his supervisory duties within the Tactical/Traffic Center, Stacy Holloman coordinated and taught course offerings including Aggressive Driving Enforcement and RADAR Operator Refresher. Holloman coordinated OC Aerosol Projectors Instructor Training and Chemical Munitions Instructor Training both taught by Combined Tactical Systems. A member of the NC School Directors' Advisory Committee, Holloman worked with the NC Criminal Justice Standards Division to offer a 2011 School Directors' Conference Overview course. This course provided advanced information and downloads to conference attendees prior to the actual conference.

John Combs continued to coordinate SC/AT Instructor and Physical Fitness Instructor courses for the Academy. Combs continued his work on the POPAT re-validation project which will begin field testing in the fall of 2012.

Roger Miller coordinated and taught a variety of course offerings to include Verbal Judo, SWAT Operator I, SWAT Operator II, Tactical Leadership Officer Safety Readiness and Officer Safety Readiness Instructor. Miller worked with the NC Tactical Officers Association (NCTOA) to coordinate the NCJA Annual SWAT Competition/Conference. Additionally, Miller worked with the NC Division of Waste Management teaching Verbal Judo at the NC Solid Waste Enforcement Officers Association Conference.

Kris Merithew assisted with the instruction of the General Instructor, New Chief's Orientation, and Officer Readiness courses. Merithew received requests for assistance from law enforcement agencies throughout North Carolina where consultation and/or case review services were provided. Merithew worked with the Governor's Highway Safety Program (GHSP) which resulted in funding many of the traffic related programs at the NCJA. Through Merithew's work with the GHSP, Merithew was able to coordinate sophisticated traffic crash investigation courses never before delivered in NC.

Chad Thompson, always smiling, enjoys being on the firing range teaching.

During the past year, Terry Miller was busy with Traffic Crash Investigation courses. The Traffic Enforcement and Investigations Certificate Program finished its 13th year and had 29 graduates in the program during the past year. In June 2012, Miller attended the National Lifesavers Conference in Orlando, FL.

Chad Thompson instructed many firearms classes during the last year. Thompson published several articles in "Combat Handguns," "Guns and Weapons for Law Enforcement," and "The Firearms Instructor" magazines. Thompson achieved a national ranking of Grand Master in the USPSA handgun competition, which is the highest level. Thompson said the most rewarding feeling is receiving an email or call from a student saying they survived a lethal force encounter due to training received in one of his classes. He actually had that experience happen during the past year.

Dan Worley serves as the School Director for the Speed Measuring Instrument Instructor and the Specialized Driver Instructor programs. As Chairman of the Advisory Committees to the Commission for Speed Measuring and Driver Instructor, Worley conducted a complete review and revision of the state mandated RADAR, Time-Distance, LIDAR, Basic Law Enforcement Driving Training, and Specialized Driver Instructor Training programs.

OPERATIONS & SUPPORT

INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT SERVICES

Anthony Aycock, the manager for the Instructional Support Services, worked on many projects for the Academy. The ISS Department assisted with the launch of the NCJA Facebook page which has been an important source of information for the NCJA users. The page has over 1,100 followers and averages over 53,000 monthly viewers. Nearly 40 new self-paced courses in Microsoft and business management topics were added to the NCJA Online Learn Center. A major upgrade took place for Blackboard, the software NCJA uses for its instructor-led online courses. The upgrade adds a modern look and several new features. Several classrooms were upgraded with Blu-ray players, rolling whiteboards, enhanced control panels, Ladibug document cameras, and cable television.

Marla Norville, Media Technician for the West Campus worked diligently in the planning and implementation of classroom upgrades. Three of the West Campus classrooms were upgraded with new Extron controllers, Blu-ray high definition DVD players, and high definition LCD projectors. Along with the three classroom upgrades came the ability to monitor classroom equipment online through a web based graphic user interface. As other classrooms are upgraded, they will come online with similar capabilities.

Shelia Honeycutt, Registrar for the East Campus, and Monique Flynn, Registrar for the West Campus, have worked diligently to ensure the facility needs of staff, outside agencies, and students are met. Honeycutt, along with Linda Warren, Program Assistant worked to ensure all training needs at East campus are met. Flynn has worked extremely hard to maximize the utilization of facilities and to maintain the high level of service to all.

LEARNING RESOURCE CENTER

Erin Barta, the Library Supervisor, along with Kitty Peak, the Library Technician, had a busy year in the Learning Resource Center. Barta supported staff and students providing resources and articles to assist with the courses. Peak, if not in the Media Center, can be found around campus and has provided technical support with classroom computers and audio-visual equipment. The Library launched a new online catalog of its print and video holdings. Wii and Xbox gaming systems were added to the Student Center for student recreating and team building. Games are available to check out in the Library. The growing selection of popular movies on DVD available to students and staff to check out has remained a popular item in the Library. This service provides entertainment to students who are on campus for an extended period of time.

Elaine Beatty provides support in the evening hours for students. She is available to assist students with their needs when they are completing homework and projects.

The library provides assistance finding articles and helping students with their research for the courses that they are taking. The library has computers available for student use.

VIDEO PRODUCTION UNIT

Valery Coffey supervises the video staff for the Academy. Brad Ellis and David Jensen comprise the rest of the staff for the Video Production Unit. The video unit put over 2,000 production hours into training films totaling 46 hours of screen time. Major titles included Child Maltreatment Investigations, 2010 DNA Database Act, and 2012 In-Service Returning Military Veterans. The video unit filmed many events for the Academy including the Telecommunicators Conference and the 2012 Peace Officers Memorial Day ceremony. Brad Ellis left the Academy at the end of the fiscal year. The video unit also assisted other agencies with filming and audio-visual needs such as the North Carolina Association of School Resource Officers (NCASRO) Conference and the North Carolina State Highway Patrol (NCSHP) with taping "Be Rail Safe." BLET sections were revised and updated. The video unit began converting VHS tapes to DVD as preservation copies for the NCJA Library.

Valery Coffey adjusts the camera as she prepares to shoot training video at the Academy.

GRAPHIC DESIGN AND PRINT SHOP

Barbara Yow, Graphic Artist/Illustrator, completed approximately 19,000 jobs for NCJA Instructors and outside agencies. These jobs included signs, posters, brochures, bookmarks, PowerPoint slides, book covers, and photograph exhibits. Yow also assists with photography during annual training events such as the SWAT Competitions, Telecommunicators' Training Conference, class graduations, NC Peace Officers Memorial Day, and any special occasion or event as requested.

Sheila Smith, Printing Unit Supervisor, led the two person print shop with the assistance of Johnnie Parker, Printing Equipment Operator. During the year the print shop turned out over 7.6 million impressions while completing 556 jobs in the past year for the Academy staff and other criminal justice agencies. At the end of June, Smith retired from the Academy. The print shop produces many of the training booklets for the NCJA courses, as well as materials for groups like the NC Police Executives Association's annual training conference and the NC Sheriffs' Association conference. Services from the print shop remain in high demand, keeping the unit busy.

Sheila Smith, the long-time manager of the NCJA print shop retired after 33 years of service at the end of this fiscal year. Smith accepted a retirement plaque from NCJA Director, Mark Strickland.

RESEARCH UNIT

Charles Rambeau, Criminal Justice Specialist, prepares and maintains reports for course testing and evaluations. Rambeau provides quarterly reports from the Academy Services Survey. Rambeau assists in preparing budget reports and budget revisions to be used by Don Stacy, Deputy Director of Operations. Rambeau has his General Instructor Certification and teaches Measuring Training Results and Developing Test Questions. Rambeau continues his success working with the Governor's Crime Commission and writing grant proposals for different centers at the Academy.

Tami Warren, Criminal Justice Specialist is the Accreditation Manager for the Academy. Many hours of work are put into preparation for the Academy's second reaccreditation on-site in December 2013. Warren is the Secretary for the North Carolina Law Enforcement Accreditation Network (NCLEAN) the North Carolina PAC for CALEA accreditation. Warren also coordinates the North Carolina Peace Officers Memorial Day (POMD) ceremony for the Attorney General's Office. The 2012 North Carolina Peace Officers Memorial Day was held in Winston-Salem.

CAMPUS OPERATIONS

The Indoor Range at the West Campus opened during the 1st quarter of the fiscal year. On August 17th, a Law Enforcement Appreciation Day was held for the opening of the new range with over 100 guests attending.

The final inspection for the renovation of the Administration Annex Building occurred in the 1st quarter of this fiscal year, with the staff moving in during the 2nd quarter.

Marcella Bonner, Program Assistant and NCJA Switchboard Operator, along with Dana Phillips, Facilities Maintenance Supervisor, were relocated to the Annex after renovation was completed. Cable was installed in B & C Dorms and by the end of the year all three dorms were equipped with televisions. The lead removal project was awarded to C.T. Clayton Engineering. Lead debris will be cleaned from the impact area of the berms on the three ranges at the East Campus in the next fiscal year.

Reggie Iverson, Jamey Jones, Danny McPhail, Tony Young, Martin Williams and T.A. Hairr worked hard during the year maintaining the East Campus and participating in various projects as they came up during the year. They performed routine maintenance tasks, as well as, assisting with special events set up for instructors. Ed Norris ensured the Academy grounds were in top shape.

Tara McPhail and Hazel McLamb, along with the housekeeping staff worked hard to keep the buildings and dorms maintained and cleaned. The staff worked hard to keep the rooms ready for the students and provide excellent service as needed.

Roger Barolet, Dorm Manager for the North Carolina Justice Academy-West Campus spearheaded the Academy's efforts to update dormitory accommodations through the replacement of comforters and mattress set covers. Roger planned and supervised the timely implementation of these updates. Roger worked closely with fellow staff members to ensure minimal service interruptions for both staff and students. Throughout this year Roger has worked with relentless fervor to ensure a high quality of housekeeping during the transition of staff.

Doran Harris, Larry McCrary, and Chris Jackson are all part of the maintenance team that work to maintain the North Carolina Justice Academy –West campus facilities. Each of them has worked to enhance the students' stay on campus and to maintain the expected level of service. They each have played key roles in the maintenance and upgrade of the indoor firing range through the addition of rifle grade steel, acoustical blankets, and routine maintenance. They also have worked to maintain the dormitories to enhance the students' stay on campus. They each were instrumental in the upgrade of seating in the cafeteria building classrooms with eighty chairs being assembled and placed in service.

THE BUDGET

BUDGET REPORT

The North Carolina Justice Academy received an authorized budget of $6.4 million in September for the fiscal year 2011 – 2012. The Fiscal Research Division of the Legislative Services Office conducted reviews of training for law enforcement personnel throughout the state. NCJA staff met with three fiscal research analysts at both campuses in September and gave them an overview of Academy operations and a tour of each campus. In July, Barbara Parks, Intern, produced an Economic Impact Study of the Academy on Sampson and Henderson counties. The study revealed the Academy had a direct impact of $15 million annually on the economy of Sampson County and $6 million on the economy of Henderson County. This study was presented to local government officials in both counties.

Fortunately, for the first time in a long time agencies were not requested to project budget reductions for the coming fiscal year. The Academy conducted six CCH Instructor Update classes during the 2nd quarter of the fiscal year and was allowed to charge a registration fee. Over $18,000 was collected, with that money being used to support the program. Purchases with these funds included a high definition projector for the Auditorium and a portable welder to repair targets on the firing range. Also during this quarter of the fiscal year, the Academy signed a new long term contract with Xerox, and two new copiers were placed in the print shop.

During the 3rd quarter of the fiscal year, the Academy sent requests for restorations of several positions in the Expansion Budget for 2012 – 2013 that had been lost in previous years. DOJ Financial approved four of the requests and sent them to OSBM for approval for the Governor's budget. Two Capital Expansion requests were also submitted for a new 75 bed dormitory at West Campus at $4,163,000 and the transfer of the SBI Crime Lab from the leased property in Asheville to a new building in Edneyville at $2,929,000. The Academy was approved for the Lead Removal project from the berms of the firing ranges on the East Campus for $296,000 from the general fund. Two grants were acquired during the period – the Child and Abuse Neglect Prevention grant, renewed for one year for Ross Robinson's position, and a Sexual Assault Investigation grant which provided funds for the hiring of Catherine Johnson.

The final quarter of the fiscal year, DOJ was asked to reduce funds in Management Flexibility Reserve of $1,617,283 to pay for unbudgeted overpayments and unachieved reductions in the Medicaid Program. The Academy's share in this reduction was 8.4 percent or $135,117. The Academy recommended one position that was an Administrative Assistant I be eliminated at a reduction of $50,000, and the remainder of the reduction was achieved by reducing purchasing of equipment and services. The Academy was able to purchase through monies left at the end of the fiscal year several items including classroom upgrades at the West Campus, mattress coverings to prevent bed bugs at both campuses, new carpet for the cafeteria at the East Campus, and new directional signage at the East Campus.

GRANTS

#2559, Traffic Enforcement

This grant was awarded from the Governor's Highway Safety Program. This grant addressed three major concerns. First, it was necessary to provide recently approved RADAR/LIDAR instruments for classroom training. This grant also addressed the increase in motorcycle ownership as well as an increase in traffic crashes involving motorcycles. This grant also helped in the fight against illicit drug trafficking on the state's highways.

#2494, Child Abuse Investigations Trainer

This grant was the second year funding of a grant that was awarded in 2009 by the Governor's Crime Commission. This grant hired a temporary instructor to provide courses in the area of investigating child abuse. Specific emphasis in the course work dealt with assisting in conducting a forensic investigation using specialized cameras to document suspected incidents of child abuse. Additionally, the grant provided resource CDs to local law enforcement to assist them in conducting child abuse investigations.

#2500, Multidisciplinary Sex Crime Training

This grant was the first year funding of a grant that was awarded in 2011 by the Governor's Crime Commission. This grant hired a temporary instructor to provide courses in the area of investigating sex crimes. Investigating this type of crime requires specialized training and sensitivity to the crime victim. The temporary instructor was a former sex crimes investigator for the Kansas City Police Department and brought her experience in sex crime investigations along with a desire for improved investigative procedures.
